

Sergeant Walter Albert SHEA

09-C-07

Walter A. Shea was the son of William Albert and Ethel May Shea from Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan. He was born on 6 July 1911 in Calgary. Walter was educated in Moose Jaw and was working as an "automatic typist" (telegrapher) when he enlisted at Regina on 27 July 1942 with The Lake Superior Regiment (Motor). He was married to Edna Marion and had a son William Allen.

Walter A. Shea was killed in action in Germany during the liberation of the Netherlands on 9 April 1945 at the age of 33.

Shea River in Saskatchewan is called after him.

