

Private John Harold
SIMPSON
08-C-08

Private John Harold Simpson, 19, of the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders was killed in action on the Western Front on April 20, 1945. His parents Charles and Kathleen Simpson of Toronto received this message.

John Simpson served with the Toronto Scottish Regiment, and was transferred to the Argyll's two years ago.

Born in Toronto, he visited the Reds School and worked at a Rules and Advertising Company. Besides his parents, he is survived by his four brothers James (now in Belgium), Charlie, George and Frank and five sisters Kathleen, Gerrie, Hazel, Gladys Evelyn.

John Simpson was a member of the Avenue United Church.

